General Discussion

- Call Started at 2PM EST
- Minutes of 26 January Conference Call were accepted

Discussion of Ira’s revised white paper

- Covers Printer Class – changes to other classes to be added later
- Still some unaddressed items in Printer Class
  - e.g., time from last reset can be derived from MIB referenced items
  - mapping/model correspondence editorial changes necessary for all elements – some because of initial error, other because they do not reflect updates
- Questions on what to do with “Capabilities” Elements
  - Names confusing relative to Setting and Capabilities class, possibly to be added later
- Proposal to divide Summary section into classes, with each class summary to precede detailed discussion of corresponding class.
- Ultimately, objective is to have mapping/model correspondence for all elements; elements that cannot be derived from existing structures (e.g., MIB, IPP) will be deprecated.
- Objective is to complete level 1 change identification for all Printer Class elements before starting on other elements, so that Craig can proceed with CR
- However, effort must be made to ensure that element changes in all affected classes are concert. Actual CR submission may be delayed until level 1 changes are defined for all classes.
